

INTRODUCING MONICA DUBBEL

An elegant addition to the Monica Collection

Introducing Monica Dubbel: a fusion of contemporary design and vintage influences tailored to modern standards of technical precision, scale, and comfort. Ideal for workplace, hospitality, and residential settings, Monica is a standout choice for a variety of projects. The Dubbel variant enriches our renowned Monica collection, crafted in collaboration with the product design team at Gensler, exclusively for Bulo.

Experience the exquisite Monica Dubbel chair, featuring a selection of three stunning solid wood leg finishes: Ash Black, Ash, and Walnut, complemented by a wide array of luxurious textile upholstery options. Elevate your space with personalized style and sophistication.

Our first product design originating in the USA

The Bulo Design Team embraced Gensler's guiding principles for furniture design. Our shared values in Quality, Sustainability, Wellness, Equity and Exceptional Design Aesthetics have guided the design development of our Monica Collection. To collaborate with an American-based product designer and strategist to enrich our global product range is something we deeply respect, and eagerly anticipate engaging new partnerships in the future.

Designed to be viewed from all perspectives

Monica's flowing contours purposefully diverge from the rigid lines typical of architecture and office furniture. Intended to be appreciated from every perspective, the Monica Collection transforms your space into a sculptural masterpiece.

A comprehensive collection of lounge furnishings.

Monica Collection offers three distinctive options: an single lounge chair designed for spacious, comfortable and super-supportive upright seating. The Monica Swivel chair is perfect for collaborative settings that require mobility and flexibility. Monica Dubbel offers a cozy seating experience for multiple individuals.

Complement your seating layout with our popular Lucca Tables – portable and perfectly sized.

Style your Monica

Monica Collection offers an adaptable aesthetic for all moods and projects. Three solid wood leg options and a multitude of graded-in textile selections create a new look in each combination.

On 4 solid wood legs

The legs are made from FSC certified solid wood; treated with water-based lacquers that meet the most strict european norms. The legs are fixed with a double bolt connection to a metal frame that curves under the wing of the chair. This method guarantees the highest level of strength and stability for the frame.

Legs available in natural ash, black lacquered ash and natural walnut.
On felt glides or without glides.
